Re: Tender of All Pending Lawsuits Involving American Transit Insurance Company - Immediate Response Requested: See Exhibit A

Dear American Transit Insurance Company:

Uber Technologies, Inc. and its relevant subsidiaries (collectively, "Uber") hereby tender the defense and indemnity of each of the lawsuits captioned in Exhibit A pursuant to the respective American Transit policies identified in Exhibit A. Links to the complaints located on the New York State Unified Court System for each matter being tendered are enclosed for your reference (the "Complaints"). Common to each Complaint are plaintiffs seeking damages for bodily injury and alleging that Uber is vicariously liable for the negligence of an American Transit insured driver or vehicle owner.

The American Transit policies, as "owner's polic[ies] of liability insurance," are required to contain the mandatory provisions promulgated in the Code of Regulations, 11 NY ADC 60-1.1. Pursuant to the relevant regulation, the American Transit policies are required to define an insured as "any other person or organization but only with respect to his, her or its liability because of acts or omissions of an insured within paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision." 11 NY ADC 60-1.1(c)(3). Whether or not the American Transit policies contain such language, New York Courts have routinely held that "any policy language which conflicts with the regulation setting certain minimum standards which automobile insurers must include in their policies or is less generous to the insured is unenforceable and superseded by the regulation." (11 NYCRR 60-1.1(b)) Liberty Mut. Fire Ins. Co. v. Nat'l Cas. Co., 90 A.D.3d 859, 935 N.Y.S.2d 319 (2011); See also, Farm Fam. Cas. Ins. Co. v. Henderson, 179 A.D.3d 1193, 116 N.Y.S.3d 771 (2020); Matter of Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. (Hogan), 82 N.Y.2d 57, 61, 623 N.E.2d 536, 538 (1993) ("inaction by the Superintendent of Insurance here does not divest the courts of their duty “to interpret statutes so as to reach a reasonable result whenever possible.”).

Because the Complaints in Exhibit A seek damages for bodily injury against Uber arising out of the actions of American Transit insureds, Uber qualifies as an insured under the American Transit policies. American Transit is therefore obligated to defend and indemnify Uber against the Complaints as an entity alleged to be responsible for the conduct of another “insured.”

American Transit’s duty to defend is unaffected by any potentially uncovered allegations. New York law is clear that it is immaterial that “the complaint against the insured asserts additional claims which fall outside the policy’s general coverage or within its exclusory provisions” (Seaboard Sur. Co. v. Gillette Co., 64 N.Y.2d 304, 310, 486 N.Y.S.2d 873, 476 N.E.2d 272 (1984)). “If any of the claims against the insured arguably arise from covered events, the insurer is required to defend the entire action” (Frontier Insulation Contrs. v. Merchants Mut. Ins. Co., 91 N.Y.2d 169, 175, 667 N.Y.S.2d 982, 690 N.E.2d 866 (1997)). The duty remains “even though facts outside the four corners of [the] pleadings indicate that the claim may be meritless or not covered” (Fitzpatrick v. American Honda Motor Co., 78 N.Y.2d at 63, 571 N.Y.S.2d 672, 575 N.E.2d 90 (1991); see Automobile Ins. Co. of Hartford v. Cook, 7 N.Y.3d 131, 137, 818 N.Y.S.2d 176, 850 N.E.2d 1152 (2006)).

In addition, each driver named in the Complaints listed in Exhibit A consented to terms with Uber in which they agreed to 1) “indemnify, defend (at [Uber’s] option) and hold [Uber]...harmless from and against all claims, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees and related expenses), [and] damages...asserted by a third party and arising out of or related to...[their] access to our Platform or [their] interaction with any third party. and 2) “add Uber...to your insurance policies...as an additional insured.” A copy of these written agreements can be provided upon request.

Please be aware that an actual conflict exists between Uber, American Transit’s insured drivers listed in Exhibit A, and American Transit. This actual conflict allows for Uber’s selection of independent counsel (whose reasonable fees are to be paid by American Transit) to represent Uber against the allegations of the Complaints. See, e.g., Great American Insurance Company v. Houlihan Lawrence, Inc., 449 F. Supp. 3d 354 (S.D. N.Y. 2020) (applying New York law). Uber has already retained counsel to protect its interests in the matters listed in Exhibit A and hereby formally tenders the cost of its defense and any indemnification.

We request that you provide us with a full and complete copy of each applicable American Transit Insurance Company policy listed in Exhibit A with your acknowledgment of this tender, along with any information you have regarding any other potentially applicable insurance policies in effect at the time of the subject incidents.

This formal tender is effective immediately. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please contact the undersigned as soon as possible to discuss the appointment of independent counsel.

Sincerely,

Scott Jalowiec
